Remarks: Ting: [] advised me that this problem was discussed at the OCB Luncheon on 11 August, and Elmer Staats will discuss it with Pete Craig. [] said that Staats knew nothing of the request and would, in all probability, have it withdrawn and directed to State. In the meantime, there is no action required on the part of CIA.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Mr. Robert Amory
Central Intelligence Agency
[Redacted]

SUBJECT: Intelligence Material in Support of Ambassador Lodge's
Program at the 9th UN General Assembly.

Ambassador Lodge has expressed a desire to place on the agenda of the 9th General Assembly, an item entitled "Communism--The New Colonialism". In support of this program, I would appreciate it if you can assist us in securing the following information. Wherever possible material already prepared can be used.

1. The names, positions and past or present ties with Moscow of the major Communist leaders in the non-Communist countries which are members of the UN or which have observers. (See attachment #1.) There is no need for more than six or eight, even in the more critical countries.

2. An up-to-date brief analysis of Communism in the 17 non-Communist countries marked with an asterisk on the attached list. A sample draft on Burma (attachment #2) is attached to indicate the general lines of approach. The sentences underlined in red are topics of major interest to us.

3. Attached is a list (attachment #3) of the major Communist leaders of the Eastern European satellites compiled by my staff in April of this year. I would appreciate it if you would check this over for changes and additions since then. I would also be glad if you would call to my attention any errors which you may encounter in the course of this work.

The brief on Burma mentioned above is one of 46 being prepared by my staff from material furnished by OIR, Department of State.

THE C.I.A. HAS NO OBJECTION
TO THIS CONFIDENTIALITY OF THIS INFORMATION.

They will be checked and brought up to date by OIR before use. These briefs, together with those furnished by you, will be submitted to the OCB Working Group on the 9th General Assembly for transmission to Ambassador Lodge.

If this material can be made available to us by August 13, it will be deeply appreciated.

*Personal regards
"Pete"*
